Thoughts from your District Governor

Chris Moorman

The first half of this year sure is finishing up quickly. Now we are in the midst of the holiday season and spending time celebrating with family and friends. If your celebrations are like the ones I attend, then you probably have enough food for twice the number of attendees. This is a great problem to have, since I'm as big a fan of overindulging during the holidays as most people are. Of course this is generally followed up with the New Year's resolution to lose some of that excess weight picked up during the holidays. Maybe we can help our post-holiday figures somewhat by remembering our Lion's Centennial Service Challenge for December and January of "Relieving the Hunger".

During December and January we've been challenged to join Lions from around the world to help relieve hunger. We've been invited to organize projects that mobilize our club members to make a difference in the community by helping those who don't have enough to eat. Lions International is partnering with "The Global Food Banking Network" and "Feeding America" for volunteer opportunities. If neither has a location near you, then perhaps you can prepare and deliver food baskets in your local community. While it would be nice, it doesn't have to be a giant Thanksgiving feast. There are families in your community that will be happy with a basic, nutritious meal. Even if your club can feed just one family, it will be a big difference in that one family's holidays.

If your club accepts the challenge and wants to get involved in "Relieving the Hunger" LCI has created a six step action plan to assist you.

1. Create a planning committee
2. Pick your project
3. Publicize your project
4. Implement your project
5. Tell LCI about your project
6. Celebrate your success

The plan with more details can be downloaded at <http://www.lionsclubs.org/EN/common/pdfs/iad461.pdf>

Whatever you and your club plans on for the holiday season and beyond, good luck and best wishes for the New Year.

2014

On October 18th, the Houston Ladies Lions Club held their charter event. For those that were not able to attend it was a smashing event – an afternoon high tea. I felt that a high tea deserved a white tux and a top hat. I ended up purchasing a top hat. The purchase of which was not a great deal, but the conversation with the sales person was. I was wearing my council shirt on which is embroidered our Lions Symbol. The sales person asked “ What are Lions? I have never heard of them.” Wow - Tom Blase, CCE says we should have an elevator speech to inform people about Lions. Well how about this approach?

You might be a Lion if you sell oranges and grapefruit to raise money for scholarships.

You might be a Lion if you pack backpacks for needy school children.

You might be a Lion if you catch, fry and sell catfish as a fund raising event.

You might be a Lion if you help build a wheelchair ramp for an elderly couple using walkers.

You might be a Lion if you transport a child to Texas Lions Camp.

You might be a Lion if you help cook and serve hamburgers to 220 children at TLC.

You might be a Lion if you put together a health fair for your community.

You might be a Lion if you collect used eye glasses to be used in mission trips.

You might be a Lion if you see that a child unable to afford a pair of glasses gets the glasses.

The list of “You might be a Lion” goes on forever. You try it. However be aware that there is a difference between being a member of a lions club and being a Lion. Let me explain. Two children go to Texas Lions Club. One is confined to a wheelchair. His name is John. The second is a girl who is blind. Her name is Sue. How are they recognized? Is it a boy in a wheelchair named John and a blind girl named Sue? Or are they a child named John who just happens to be in a wheelchair and a girl named Sue who happens to be blind? A subtle but important difference. Try that same example for yourself.

I am a member of the Huntsville Lions Club (or any other club) named Noah. Or, my name is Noah and I am a Lion. In my case, I joined the Huntsville Lions Club in 1981. I became a Lion after sending Desiree to TLC and seeing the difference that that experience made in her life and her parents' lives. A Lion is a person who serves – taken from our motto – “We Serve”. The result is that as a Lion, service becomes a way of life. You might be a Lion if

District Service – A Lesson in Service to Others

I cannot believe that I am already half-way through my year as Second Vice District Governor. Even though this year is going by WAY too fast, I can honestly report that I have thoroughly enjoyed the experience so far, and am grateful for this opportunity to serve our District and learn so much more about how Lions serve others.

I have had the great opportunity to participate in a number of exciting service activities and to learn from other Lions. As I travel around the District attending meetings, installations, new member inductions and Club events, I find myself thinking how lucky I am to be part of this great service organization. There are so many great Lions around the District serving their respective communities.

I am energized and encouraged, too, by the service being conducted in our District – by both Lions and Leos. There are challenges, I will admit, but often times, they lead to new opportunities. A Club struggling to find ways to turn around declining membership might turn to the District leadership and ask for guidance or assistance. This year, I've seen how some Zone Chairs work with their clubs to help the members through challenging times. It is especially rewarding to see how the Zone leaders learn and grow in their roles providing assistance to their Clubs. I offer this observation because I know it is important to bring newer Lions into leadership roles and I hope that we can all look to identify future Zone leaders and lead them to the training opportunities we have planned for the near future. I am hopeful, too, that someone reading my remarks might think about serving the District as Governor some day. This really is a great experience – one I wholeheartedly recommend to anyone!
